

Horoscope 1

March 2011

Aries Horoscope (March 21 to April 20)

It's a real communication Month for you, Ari, with connections happening everywhere. Do plan on thinking and talking goals since what you say you get and it comes real quick these days. If there's anyone you need to repair relations with in any way, get on the phone, fax, email, car, or real good shoes and hike on over there and make the reconstruction and restoration right away. No more sticky relationships for you.

Taurus Horoscope (April 21-May 21):

Your dream machine (imagination) will be amped to maximum this Month as if a DSL line were linked to your brain and you were receiving every thought God ever had since the beginning of time. This may overwhelm you so best get a top of the line computer and download all those ideas into a hard disk to preserve till the end of time. In the meantime, money will be thrown at you. Pick it up please.

Gemini Horoscope (May 23-June 20):

Well the inner you is still hidden while the outer you is as charming as a sports enthusiast can be and some may think you've become quite electric (tell them it's Uranus) and glowy. Someone interesting comes your way so look for them. In the meantime, your fun accomplishments are seen (and your temper!) and that's good for soon you'll be awash in questions about money. A partnership is discussed.

Cancer Horoscope (June 21-July 20):

Things you're not aware of are part of the playing field so if you feel confused be aware that it's because you don't have all the information (unless you're studying astrology then you understand what's occurring). There are hidden agendas (universal) that have to do with hidden strengths (yours) and creativity (yours again) and if you would focus on your inner self they would be available. Being thrown off balance is good sometimes.

Leo Horoscope (July 21-Aug. 22):

You aren't who you thought you were anymore. Your life isn't what it was before. Your sense of self is diminishing rapidly as a new one emerges. It's all quite confusing on outer levels but very purposeful on inner ones. It's important to make money now but only by doing what you deeply love. This will take intent pondering and lots of courage. Creativity is afoot and expanding daily. You need to write.

Virgo Horoscope (Aug. 23-Sept. 22):

Whatever the situation you'll need diplomacy. Going into the past will not allow the future to be revealed. Don't let others go there either. You're high profile this Month so dress for it. Add a diamond. Go public with your ideas and find another with intellectual abilities. A mystery intrigues you. This pulls forth intuition which provides new activity for the new acquisition. Think about flags.

Libra Horoscope (Sept. 23-Oct. 22):

A rainbow is a flag. Think about when rainbows appear. After rain and hail and storms and even when it snows. After difficult weather there's a rainbow in the sky. Rainbows (the seven spectrums of light we see) represent the 7 Rays of Life from the seven stars in the Big Bear. They're all streaming into you this Month. Everything works brilliantly now. Prepare to travel.

Scorpio Horoscope (Oct. 23-Nov. 21):

What can I say that I haven't already? A profound shift in consciousness is taking place within you. It's tinged with joy, held by pain, and nurturing will only occur when you live in the forest once again. Seeking a monastery or place of retreat will be vital to the next stage of mental development attempting to precipitate. Order your daily life immediately. And watch what you eat.

Sagittarius Horoscope (Nov. 22-Dec. 20):

You, and Aquarians, need to create a Vesta art piece. Perhaps you could include lots of flags from other cultures. Creating a Vesta box allows the puzzle piece of why you're living this life to appear. It may tell you who you are, what your next step is, who to do it with, and why do it at all? Do write this Month. Your approach is so original that reality changes in a blink of an eye. Wounds do heal.

Capricorn Horoscope (Dec. 21-Jan. 20):

The money situation is very unusual. You might find it hidden under a plant or in a pot of gold or receive it from an unexpected source. Should you feel you're at a dead end, imaginatively change direction. Make this a real endeavor and use humor to maneuver difficulties. Who's happy around you? Be with them wherever they are. You need some sparkle. Buy glitter. I smell soap.

Aquarius Horoscope (Jan. 21-Feb. 18):

Yes, there are two Paths. Let me tell you the Soul seed-thought for Gemini (which the Sun is transmitting to Earth now). The thought to ponder is, "I see my other self (personality level) but that self wanes (gets dimmer) and my other self glows and grows (Soul self). This is the Castor/Pollux (Gemini stars) situation. Aquarians are having two choices now. You're evolving.

Pisces Horoscope (Feb. 18-March 20):

Do think this Month on what it is you want and need as you go about serving humanity. Substance (spiritual into form) is available if you use your imagination, concentration, and love. Yes, love is a component to bringing things into form. You may look for another place to live and/or work. Finish commitments, rest and read this Month. A whole new world is pattering toward you.

Horoscope 2: February 2011

Aries Horoscope (March 21 to April 20)

You are on a roller-coaster ride of positive self-expression and abundance, together with as well some sense of limitation and restriction. Always charging full speed ahead, you must sometimes run into a wall, that's natural, Aries. But these days you bounce right back. A mini-crisis of some kind, or engaged moment of truth, is likely by Full Moon, when relationships with significant others in your life spur you on in your journey.

Taurus Horoscope (April 21 to May 21)

You are something of a mystery these days, Taurus, even to yourself. So much energy and positive thinking. Yet you stand behind and off to the side from the face you show the world. Back there behind your mind you are full of inchoate dreams and visions, especially these last month. The timing of Full Moon both engages you and also distracts you further into the dreamland of your innermost desires and secret places, where it all comes out right in the end.

Gemini Horoscope (May 22 to June 21)

You just love to network, Gemini, and you've had plenty of opportunity for that lately. You charge forward into vital connection with all the beings in your ever-widening sphere of contact. You also may feel pulled back inside yourself these days, since you are going through something of a review and reconsideration of the past 30 years or so of your worldly efforts. This month end, leading up to Full Moon, you feel poised for vital self-expression inextricably tied to friends and associates, and plans for a vibrantly charged electric future.

Cancer Horoscope (June 22 to July 22)

Sweet and sensitive is really working for you these days, Cancer, especially on the job, and is leading you into responsible communication with friends and associates as well. You may feel torn between your public persona and the stay-at-home side of your personality over the month end, leading up to Full Moon. Maybe you can inhabit both sides - it's time to go for the gusto.

Leo Horoscope (July 23 to August 21)

On Thursday the electric other lights up your sense of who you are, Leo, even though you are usually so full of your own perspective. Then over the month end, leading up to Full Moon, you are reminded that communication holds the key to connecting with those ideas of travel or perhaps philosophical issues of higher mind that you have been so preoccupied with of late. Meanwhile on the job you may be feeling both enthused and somewhat stuck. Time to break out of the box!

Virgo Horoscope (August 22 to September 23)

Forthright romantic communication lights the way for you this month end, Virgo, as the time approaches for Full Moon in your house of resources. The question is, who's resources are being developed, yours or your partner's, or someone else's? On January, those dreams and visions you've been having for travel plans or issues of higher mind may be hitting a few snags. Don't despair, it's all good.

Libra Horoscope (September 24 to October 23)

You seem quite full of romantic thoughts and feelings these days, Libra, as creative intimacy to the max propels you forward into more and more depth of connection. When push comes to shove, there are some limitations to overcome, as always, but your progress is an upward spiral. By Full Moon, you find yourself bringing it all back home to your personal self. For you these days, partnership is being.

Scorpio Horoscope (October 24 to November 22)

Your house of partnership has rarely been more active, Scorpio, and you might feel yourself caught between the lows and the highs of it all. It is a conscious act of service and sharing that propels you forward, but you are tempted as well to pull back into retreat mode this month end, leading up to Full Moon. Then the next month, brings you right back into the action. Storm the walls of tempestuous sharing once more, and this time give it your best shot!

Sagittarius Horoscope (November 23 to December 22)

Ideals of service and painful realizations of the limits of that mode of behavior are simultaneously springing forth in your psyche these days, Sagittarius. Meanwhile your mental process and artistic creativity are truly amazing to behold. This month end, leading up to Full Moon, your excitement reaches such a fever pitch that you are ready to fully share your secrets with the universe of groups and for the sake of friendship and the future. There may be some setbacks in the aftermath and you may pull back into retreat mode, but nothing can hold you down for long!

Capricorn Horoscope (December 23 to January 20)

Home and family are a source of both mental and aesthetic delight these days, as you struggle to ground your creative vision in practical reality. You feel more energy for this process over the month end as something deep inside yourself is changing with the flow toward making it more and more concrete. Full Moon brings out the need to go public with it as well as to enjoy the fruits of your labors in the peace and tranquility of home environment and your deep innermost feelings. Honor them, Capricorn!

Aquarius Horoscope (January 21 to February 19)

You have been doing a lot of processing of your feelings lately, Aquarius, and this month represents a continuation. You are drawn to security, like delving into home and family or the inner world of your psychology. You may need the help of significant others in your life to ground more firmly into reality your visionary and expansive ideals. Full Moon brings issues of communication and higher purpose to the forefront, and this month you may feel some sort of crisis in the process of making your private deliberations mesh with the public persona you present to the world. It's all part of getting connected with the big picture.

Pisces Horoscope (February 20 to March 20)

Issues of communication are "up" for you these days, Pisces, as you feel caught between expansion of your contacts with others, and other quite different feelings of limitation and pulling back. This month end, leading to Full Moon in your house of legacies, brings intimate sharing with significant others into the picture, and asks the question, do I want my values represented or someone else's? This month you may be making travel or educational plans but look out for some resistance to your mobility. The inner journey demands your truest attention this time.

Horoscope 3: November 2010

A r i e s - A stronger need for personal freedom takes hold this month, dear Aries. You resent any feeling of being caged or enmeshed in routines, rules, and regulations. You are putting more faith in your instincts and your judgment. The result is more spontaneity and possibly more adventure or risk-taking in your life than there has been recently. You are more assertive now as well, and your ability to trust your intuition is heightened. Ideas are flowing and you express them more freely in November. Some of the problems that have recently stumped you now find resolve. The 15th is strong for making solid plans or commitments with a partner. You may be asked to speak on the 19-20. The Full Moon on the 21st can bring financial revelations or news. Financial and love matters find more clarity after the 18th.

T a u r u s - Your attention turns to debts, loans, and shared finances this month, dear Taurus. Taking charge of your finances, particularly those to do with a partner or from a source other than your basic income, becomes necessary. The first week of the month can bring emotional issues from your past to light, particularly those surrounding relationships. Past partners might resurface now. From the 18th forward, general fogginess tends to clear up. You are more confident about the direction you'd like your life to take. Friendships become clearer, and so do your business plans. The need to resolve tricky financial or intimate matters is strong, and energy is now excellent for objective analysis and for solutions. The 21st brings a revelation about a partner.

G e m i n i - Relationships heat up this month, dear Gemini. There is a provocative energy surrounding you that tends to pull previously buried issues with others to the surface for resolve. You might have more energy and confidence to pursue a new relationship. You are taking charge of your work and daily health routines this month. It's a strong period for starting a new program or routine to improve your health or work, especially after the 18th when career matters become clearer. More credibility on the job is likely now. Your humble confidence will go a long way towards improving your reputation and professional status. The last ten days of the month are especially favorable for love and relationship matters. You can now clear the air and move forward.

C a n c e r - Energy is dynamic this month for work and health matters, dear Cancer. It's a good time for applying yourself to projects that require attention to detail, as well as for researching and implementing new health routines and programs for self-improvement. It's important to you to set your own pace and rhythm. If you are feeling like a slave to routine or to the schedules of others, you might stimulate conflict with people around you. If you've been waiting for word on a new job or a career plan, it's more likely to arrive this month. Love matters move forward after the 18th, when confusing emotional situations begin to dissipate. It's also a strong time for creative pursuits, educational or legal matters, and travel. □

L e o - Romantic and creative activities heat up this month, dear Leo. You are considerably bolder this month after a period of introspection. Your zest for life and your tendency to take risks - emotional, romantic, and creative - increase. Of course, you might want to control your purchases, as you may be overconfident now. Romance is more passionate and stimulating, although the increased energy can also lead to some strife. Competitive endeavors thrive. Financial matters, particularly those shared with a partner or money sources other than your basic income, become clearer and move forward. The 15-16 brings better energy for all money and practical matters. Family life improves dramatically later this month, which helps you to let your hair down and enjoy yourself without guilt.

V i r g o - Improvements in your love relationships and partnerships are likely this month, dear Virgo. A partner is easier to understand from the 7th forward, and love dynamics are more direct and straightforward from the 18th. Increased activity on the home front is likely now, and you can use this energy positively by working on reorganizing, renovating, or otherwise improving your domestic life. If you don't harness and manage the excess energy, however, you might encounter resistance or strife with family. Some opposition to your plans on the job is possible this month if your heart is elsewhere. You have more confidence for pushing forward with creative ideas that you've been keeping to yourself. Finances improve after the 18th. You are clearer about how to spend and save money effectively.

L i b r a - Your intellect is energized this month, dear Libra. Learning, sharing knowledge, and communicating with more confidence all figure strongly in November. At times you can speak quite rashly or you could find that you're impatient with slowness or passivity in others. Use this increased mental energy productively. You might present your ideas with much enthusiasm and confidence, which can increase the likelihood that they're accepted and admired. From the 18th forward, you are more decisive and direct in your dealings with others. Work also improves and any work matters that have been stalling begin to move forward. Finances are a strong focus, and around the 21st, you might settle some debts or obtain a loan. The pace of the month is very busy and dynamic.

S c o r p i o - It's a strong month for personal influence, dear Scorpio, particularly after the 18th, when you come across more smoothly and warmly. You can tackle challenges and problems more effectively than usual. Watch the impact you have on others now, which is considerable, and make any tweaks necessary to improve the impression you make going forward. Romance improves considerably. A partner or lover is easier to understand in the second half of the month. The 21st brings relationship issues to light. Your creative juices flow more smoothly and reliably in November. Energy to make more money is very strong now. You don't take kindly to anyone telling you how to manage your finances, however, and this attitude could stir up some conflicts.

S a g i t t a r i u s - Renewed stamina, energy, and confidence are with you this month, dear Sagittarius. You are more assertive and direct when you are going after what you want. However, until the 22nd, part of you craves some solitude as you instinctively pull back from putting your heart into new endeavors. Admirers and love interests make their interest in you known. You are more communicative after the 8th. Home and family matters improve greatly from the 18th. You might receive news of securing a new residence or property, or your domestic situation is more satisfying and comfortable. While your love feelings remain deeply personal and private, you begin to trust your instincts about love matters more faithfully. Work matters are illuminated around the 21st, when your job demands special attention.

C a p r i c o r n - Social relationships are once again in focus this month, dear Capricorn. Tricky or complicated dealings with others tend to clear up after the 18th, when your communication skills improve and your dealings with others are more direct and straightforward. The 20-21 brings a social matter to a head or culmination, demanding your immediate attention. Money from a business or self-employment increases at this time as well. Your intuition surrounding finances improves, and you are able to put more faith in your ability to manage your money effectively. Despite a busy social agenda this month, you are moving into a more introspective cycle in which you crave more time to yourself, more sleep and rest, and more solitude in general. Take this time for rest and reflection, as December promises to be especially busy.

A q u a r i u s - Your instincts for finances improve this month, dear Aquarius, and you might enjoy a pay or income increase. Career and professional matters are in strong focus, and you're ready to take charge of this area of your life. Your reputation improves after the 18th, when you bring more warmth to your professional manner. The 20-21 can bring a career project to a head. Your social life is very busy throughout November. Teamwork is emphasized, although there can be some strife with friends if you are pushed into the background or you are unable to set your own pace socially. Conflicts are lessened if you take the lead and work towards a common goal with others. Romantic opportunities might present themselves through your friends or group associations.

P i s c e s - A mostly feel-good month is in store for you, dear Pisces. Both your rulers, Jupiter and Neptune, turn direct this month, pointing to increased confidence, energy, and clarity. You have a lot of energy for career matters. You are motivated to make money and you feel, for the most part, on top of your game. If you are able to set your own pace when it comes to work, you are at your happiest. If tied to routine or eclipsed by others, you might stir up some negative energy that leads to complications or conflicts professionally, however. Try to find ways to work independently without causing friction for doing so. You are enthusiastic about your beliefs and wear your ideas with confidence and authority this month.
